Spring training
Dear Colleagues,
This month, your students will be springing into action with a running dictation (p. 2), some ball throwing (p. 3) and coin tossing (see copy file on p. 4). In 'Talking teaching', you'll enjoy our interview with Allyson Manchester, an enthusiastic American teacher from Cape Cod who works at Falmouth Academy in Massachusetts. Allyson says she feels lucky to be teaching students who are committed to deep thinking and academic rigour. Learn more on page 5.

EXERCISES: 120 seconds
LANGUAGE WORK: Fluency practice
PREPARATION: None
MATERIALS: Various articles, tennis ball
TIME: 15 minutes, 1 hr

Select six topics from the magazine and write them all over the board. Suggestions: doones (p. 9), Jane Goodall (p. 10), plastic packaging (p. 10), wrestling (p. 10), cookery books (p. 12), fake videos (p. 40).
Arrange the class into triads and have them number themselves 1-3.
Ask one of the students to throw the tennis ball at the board and whatever word it gets closest to is the first student's topic of discussion. All the number one students must talk about that topic for two minutes without stopping or hesitating. If they stop or have a long pause, they will have to write a short essay about the topic for homework.
Erase the first speaking round word from the board. Continue the activity as before with the remaining two students.
The various articles can be read at home.

This monthly six-page supplement is full of activities and ideas for using Spotlight with learners of English. It is free to all teachers who subscribe to Spotlight.
