A good deal

Dear Colleagues

In this issue, there's a good deal to help you get back into the swing of things, and it's all – as always – free of charge: seven exercises and a copy file that use Spotlight articles in a fun and creative way (see pp. 1-4). In 'Talking teaching', we are delighted to introduce Melanie Matthews, a teacher of 14 years. Melanie works with young children (aged three to five) at the Union Hall Government Early Childhood Care and Education Centre in the Caribbean. Learn more on page 5.

SPOTLIGHT ONLINE JUST A MINUTE...

Language work: Fluency practice, practising interrupting

Preparation: None

Materials: Various articles

Time: 15 minutes, bw

Select six topics from the magazine, e.g. toy guns (p. 8), Australia (p. 10), meeting (p. 12), gardening (p. 16), Brexit (p. 32), immigration (p. 39).

Write the topics on the board and number them.

Divide the class into pairs and allocate a number to each pair. Explain that one of them is going to talk about that topic for one minute. The other student has to politely interrupt and continue talking about the topic for another minute. After three interruptions, the pairs move on to another topic on the list and repeat as above. Encourage them to use these expressions: Before you go on... I'd like to say something. Excuse me for interrupting, but... Can I just mention something?

Note on the most difficult topic. The relevant article can be read as homework.

This monthly six-page supplement is full of activities and ideas for using Spotlight with learners of English. It is free to all teachers who subscribe to Spotlight.
