Getting ready for 2020

Dear Colleagues
We usher in 2020 with Carlos García Alarcón, who has been teaching in both primary and secondary schools in Spain for over 20 years. He found out more about this dedicated teacher. Then get your classes in motion with some poetry writing (p. 1), running dictations with a 'twist', a game of 'I spy' (p. 2), and two fun projects involving creating a TV commercial and 'shocking' a text (p. 3). And we hope you have fun with the phonemepalooza board game on page 4!

EASY MEDIUM ADVANCED SHORT WARM-UP ACTIVITY

Budding poets

Language work: Writing an acrostic poem
Preparation: None
Materials: Whiteboard, paper, pens
(page 20)
Time: 15 minutes, low

Tell your class that acrostic poems are one of the easiest ways to create poetry. They don't have to worry about rhythm or rhyme. Make the activity with this board. As a class, brainstorm words and phrases that rhyme with the letters of the alphabet. For example, reindeer, trees, lights. Now place the brainstormed words on the lines that begin with the same letters, and fill in the rest of the lines to create a poem. E.g. Night falls by winter / And loaded with toys / Night fall of winter / And loaded with lights / Angels ... Writing in pairs, get students to write an acrostic poem for either CHRISTMAS or BOXING DAY. Allow five minutes.
